

JASMINE FRANTZ

FULLSTACK WEB DEVELOPER

PROFILE

I'm Jasmine Frantz, a Fullstack Web Developer / Computer Animator living and working in sunny Florida. An advocate for the arts and technology, the intersection of the two is where my passion lies and what inspires my creativity.

Please feel free to contact me with any web development projects, animations, or any questions you might have about my work. Any information on amazing espresso bean brands or apple crisp recipes are always welcome too!
